Medical School Bylaws

The Faculty of the Medical School consists of a diverse organization of health care professionals and scientists who perform the teaching, research, health care and service missions of the Medical School. The University is a public university and the Faculty serves in the public interest. Faculty members are responsible for providing instruction to a large learning community that includes undergraduates, medical students, allied health workers, graduate students, residents, postdoctoral fellows, physicians, professional colleagues through continuing medical education, and the public.

Members of the Faculty must maintain and demonstrate competence in their disciplines, as well as professional and personal integrity. Faculty members are expected to offer mentorship within the entire learning community, including mentorship to Faculty colleagues. Faculty members are expected to set a high example of collegiality in the workplace with respect for personal boundaries and diversity and inclusion. Faculty members must avoid behaviors that interfere with or adversely affect a community member’s ability to learn or fulfill the individual’s professional responsibilities. Confidentiality in clinical, research, administrative and other professional roles must be assured.

In addition to the Regents’ Bylaws and these Medical School Bylaws, each of which apply to all Faculty members, special rules such as the Medical Staff Bylaws, the University of Michigan Medical Group Bylaws (UMMG Bylaws) and research guidelines and principles pertain where applicable. Faculty who provide clinical patient care must have and maintain the appropriate clinical credentials and privileges approved by the applicable governing body.
Faculty members must avoid conflicts of interest and conflicts of commitment to the University. Academic freedom does not abrogate the requirement for integrity in scholarship, professional confidentiality, collegial behavior, or civility in the workplace. The Medical School’s Conflict of Interest and Outside Interest policies and disclosure forms are available online at: http://www.med.umich.edu/u/coi/. Faculty are required to disclose their Outside Interests annually and as needed to update disclosures in M-Inform available online at: http://www.umms.med.umich.edu/minform/. Faculty must disclose the Outside Interests of both themselves and their immediate family members. When reviewing disclosures, Faculty outside interests must enhance the Faculty’s usefulness as a teacher and scholar (see Regents’ Bylaws Section 5.12). Eligible outside interests may not include the performance of functions that otherwise are more appropriately performed within the UMHS, including education, research, establishment of non-profit entities, patient chart reviews and clinical activity.

Failure to meet these responsibilities may result in corrective action up to and including suspension or termination of Faculty appointment and/or termination of employment. Corrective action is further described in Section 4.6 of the Medical School Bylaws.

Moonlighting

“Since adoption of the first Medical Service Plan in 1973, it has been both University and Medical School policy that Michigan Medicine faculty with 50% or greater appointment are not permitted to perform clinical activities outside the Michigan Medicine unless under contract through the University of Michigan to an external site. The External Clinical Activity Policy provides clarification of this longstanding policy and describes the process and guidelines in which an individual may request Division, Department, and Dean’s Office approval for an external clinical activity.”

Standard Non-Compete Clause

“In order to protect the University’s business interests and that of our patient base, we would require that:

For a period of twelve months after termination of employment with the University of Michigan Health System (UMHS), you agree that you will not, within a 25-mile radius of the Michigan Medicine office location where you were principally situated, own, manage, operate, be employed by, participate in, or be connected in any manner with any (state specialty) practice. You further agree not to solicit any patients of record of the Michigan Medicine practice except as authorized by Michigan Medicine. In addition, you agree to not be employed for a period of twelve months by health care institutions where you participated in off-site clinics in the context of your employment with Michigan Medicine. This paragraph will survive termination of your employment and is effective whether termination is by you or by Michigan Medicine. You acknowledge that this restrictive covenant is necessary in order to protect and maintain the interests of Michigan Medicine.”

NOTE: Some departments have had approved changes to the standard non-compete clause to meet their unique clinical needs. Any changes to the non-compete clause must have approval from the Senior Associate Dean for Clinical Affairs.
